  - For expenses other than prescription drugs include all receipts in respect of your immediate family, net of insurance reimbursement.
  - Any premiums paid for private health insurance, either directly or via your employer. If DNS premium paid by company, exclude.
  - For prescription drugs, provide a listing from your pharmacy showing the amounts paid in 2025. Individual receipts should be provided only for prescriptions not already included on the pharmacy listing.
  - Registered massage therapy is not an eligible medical expense in Nova Scotia and is only eligible for residents of BC, NB, NL, ON, and PE. Provide registered massage therapy receipts only if you are a resident of one of these provinces.
  - For a complete listing of qualifying medical expenses, please visit: Eligible medical expenses
- NS Children's sports and arts tax credit - You can claim fees paid in the year to a person or partnership for the registration or membership of a qualifying child (under the age of 19) in an eligible program or a club, association, or similar organization, whether inside or outside of Nova Scotia. The maximum amount that can be claimed for 2025 is $500 per child (tax credit value $43.95 ea.).

Did you pay the maximum $500 for each qualifying child (retain receipts for your records)?  Yes  No

If no, indicate the child name and amount paid for each (retain receipts for your records):

Child/Amount: $ _____ Child /Amount: $ _____ Child/Amount: $ _____
- Not a resident of NS? Some other provinces offer similar fitness/arts credits. If unsure, we'd be happy to let you know.
- Charitable or political donations - Include any 2025 charitable donation receipts as well as those from the prior five years that have not been claimed for tax purposes. Note that Go Fund Me donations are not deductible unless paid to a registered charity.
- Tuition and education - Provide form T2202 from educational institutions in Canada. Most schools make these forms available for download by students from their student account on the school website. Where tuition fees are paid to a qualifying institution outside Canada, Form TL11A should be filled out and signed by a representative of the foreign university.

IMPORTANT: Do you wish to transfer education tax credits to a spouse/parent, or from a child?  Yes  No

If yes, please have the student complete and sign the T2202 or TL11A in the section designating a transfer of education credits to a spouse or parent.

- Interest on student loans – If applicable, provide a statement from the financial institution administering your student loan showing interest paid in the year. Note, interest paid for any other indebtedness, such as bank loans or lines of credit is not eligible.
- First-time home buyers - To qualify for the first-time home buyers' tax credit, you or your spouse or partner must not have owned another home in 2025 or four preceding calendar years. Provide us with a copy of the statement of adjustments that you received from your lawyer when you purchased your home.
- Provincial Equity Tax Credits – These credits are available to individuals who made an investment in a qualifying small business. Please provide the applicable provincial tax credit certificate for the investment.
- Disability - If you or a dependant is “markedly restricted” in your daily living activities because of mental or physical impairment, provide a signed form T2201 only if you have not provided the form to the CRA in a prior year.
- Adoption expenses - Eligible expenses relating to the adoption of a child including adoption agency fees, court costs, legal expenses, travel costs, and other mandatory expenses. The maximum claim is $19,580 for each child adopted. The claim is made in the year of the later of these two dates: the adoption order is recognized by a government in Canada or the child begins to live permanently with you.
